

MARK SLOAN AMACKER

Mark Sloan Amacker passed away at St. Mary's Hospital in Tucson, Arizona, on January 6, 2001 following complications from surgery due to an abscess on the brain.

Mark was born October 16, 1953 in Richland, Washington.

He was raised and attended schools in Richland where he developed his love for engines of all types, the Columbia River, water and snow skiing, and his dogs.

He moved to the Southwest in the mid-70's where he lived and worked until the time of his death.

Mark is survived by his mother, Hope; his father, Obie Sr., and his brother and wife, Obie Jr. and Judy.

Mark's witty sense of humor, letters, and phone calls will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

Services will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made in his name to Tri-Cities Chaplaincy Hospice House, 2108 W. Entiat Ave., Kennewick, WA, 99336.
